HERNANDO'S EASY RACE.

The Hawthorne track had not dried out as fast as was expected yesterday and was still slow. It will take several days yet to get it into tip top shape. Although there were no special features offered yesterday the card was a fairly good one, drawing out an unusually large crowd. The principal event of the day was the fourth race, a free handicap purse for two-year-olds at five furlongs. Memnon was thought to be the best and was made a decided first choice while many pinned their faith to the good Tichenor filly Elsie L., who has not faced the barrier hereabouts in some time. The race had a very unsatisfactory result as I. Samelson, who won it at long odds in the betting was disqualified for bearing in on Jack Rattlin in the last eighth, the judges deeming the interference sufficient to warrant a setback. Golden Glitter, closely attended by Memnon and Jack Rattlin, showed the way for the first quarter, where the first named began to flag, allowing Jack Rattlin to displace her. It was Jack Rattlin by a length when turning for home, with Memnon second a head in front of Golden Glitter, and I. Samelson, which had moved up fast along in here was lapped. Sullivan swung wide with the last named when turning into the last quarter and came along on the outside of Jack Rattlin. They hooked up about a furlong out, when I. Samelson kept bearing in on Jack Rattlin, carrying him toward the inside rail. The former shook himself free of the latter in the last fifty yards, but had to be driven to the limit to stall off Elsie L.'s determined bid on the inside rail down the last sixteenth. Elsie L. finished fast and strongly under Caywood's vigorous ride, but could not quite get up, I. Samelson winning by a head. Jack Rattlin finished third, one length away. Knight lodged a claim of foul against the winner and it was allowed, Elsie L. being placed first and Miracle II. being moved up into third place. The last named ran a much improved race and finished with resolution. Memnon and Golden Glitter both quit when the pinch came.

Hernando was dropped into an easy spot in the third race and fairly smothered his field with speed. He simply galloped unextended in front for the entire mile and twenty yards winning as his rider pleased by four lengths. The fight for second place was a spirited one between Strangest and Brutal. They came together a sixteenth out and fought it hammer and tongs to the line, the former getting second place by a short head. There was much dissatisfaction expressed at the placing of the second and third horses, many think that Brutal should have been given the decision, but those in a position to judge fully concurred with the judicial verdict. Strangest showed great gameness in the final eighth and ran altogether one of the best races of his career. Telamon quit badly when the pinch came. Brutal finished with a rush down the final quarter, but could not quite get up.

The finish in the second race was one of the closest seen hereabout in some time. Throstle, Hargis and Santa Teresa going across the line so closely together that none but the judicial eyes could separate. They were placed in the foregoing order. Throstle led by a snug margin up to the final sixteenth, where Hargis and Santa Teresa closed. The first named tired slightly in the closing strides and just lasted long enough to win by a short head. Hargis coming fast on the outside would have probably won in another stride. Santa Teresa was a head back of Hargis and would have been second in a stride or so. Tommy Foster, which made his first start hereabouts, ran a good race, finishing a bang up fourth. Pyrrho finished a bad fifth and is capable of a much better showing. Harry Wilson was never a contender.

St. Cuthbert proved to be much the best in the sprint race, the fifth on the program, fairly running away from his field. He won in a canter by three and a half lengths from King Dellie. The latter had a hot tilt with Admonition in the last sixteenth for second place, getting it by a head in a desperate drive. The last named is rounding to his best form and should be a hard horse to beat from now on. Triaditza did not take kindly to the slow track and ran an indifferent race. If You Dare is capable of a much better race.

Odor had only practically to canter over the course to bring the purse home to his owner in the last race, as there was nothing to keep company with him. He led by a big margin throughout, winning by two and a half lengths, while Frangible finished four in front of Tammany Chief. The last named had enough after six furlongs had been run. Krewer was so lame going to the post he could hardly walk. He should never have been allowed to start.

After the race his owners, Rold Bros., were suspended for sending him to the post unfit to race. It would be more to the purpose if racing associations had a system of paddock inspection as would prevent such occurrence from the outset.

THE FUTURITY.

"Racing will be resumed in the metropolitan district next Saturday when the fall meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club will begin at Sheepshead Bay. The feature, of course, will be the Futurity, the richest two-year-old race of the year. According to the best obtainable information from turfmen who are in a position to know, the Futurity field will be made up of the following, with possibly several additional starters:

Horse	Owner	Weight	Jockey
Nasturtium	W. C. Whitney	129	N. Turner
Goldsmith	W. C. Whitney	129	A. T. Burns
King Hanover	W. C. Whitney	129	Cochran
Blue Girl	J. E. Madden	131	Shaw
Yankee	J. E. Madden	122	O'Connor
Masterman	August Belmont	126	Bullman
Numeral	Perry Belmont	112	Mounce
Baron	John Daly	112	J. Woods
Telescope	James R. Keene	112	Spencer
Cunard	Green B. Morris	134	Landry
Hyphen	S. S. Brown	122	McCune
Heno	C. H. Mackay	112	Odum

"From this list it will be seen that W. C. Whitney has a royal chance to win the big race. Though the crack Watercress colt Nasturtium has not raced since Suburban Day, he will go to the post in superb condition and will be picked by the talent to win. In fact, with his stable mates, Goldsmith and King Hanover, the crack colt will make the Whitney stable a powerful favorite in the betting. Nasturtium has worked wonderfully well during the past week and has shown remarkable flights of speed. He is a big, strong, raw-boned colt, a slow beginner, but a whirlwind finisher. It is for this reason that smart pickers believe that Nasturtium, with good fortune and a competent ride, should land the money," says the New York Sun.

"But, for the sake of argument, if the Watercress colt should happen to lose, or even fall down, Mr. Whitney has two other star performers in Goldsmith and King Hanover, both of whom displayed increased winning qualities during the past week at Saratoga. Because of poor judgment on the part of Burns, who won with King Hanover by beating Goldsmith a neck in the Grand Union Hotel Stakes, the King is now compelled to shoulder 129 pounds as a penalty, instead of receiving the benefit of his maiden allowance had he finished in second Winner—B. g. by Aintree—Stephanie.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Astor was luckily placed to the stretch, where he easily drew to the front. Asquith, although slightly lame, closed a big gap after working his passage through. Cogswell was prominent throughout and finished strongly. Armor was on the outside and made a wide turn, got off badly and was given a poor ride. The Black Scot was very dull of speed today and can do better. He received an easy ride. Handcuff's showing was very poor and in contrast to his morning trials.
Overweights—Chaos, 1 pound.
Astor, show, 1 to 2. Asquith, show, 2 to 5. Cogswell, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Knight of Ellerslie—Sister Louise.
Went to post at 2:46. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Knight of Rhodes was very fit and outclassed the other two. Bellario has evidently been flying at too high a game all season, and is not much above the selling plate class. He was put to his utmost to pass Politician in the stretch. The latter ran a clever race for a supposed cheap one and can win among moderate class ones.
Scratched—(27472) All Gold, 118; 27817 Chuctanunda, 117; (27837) St. Finnan, 100.
Overweights—Politician, 2 pounds.

Time, 25, 51, 1:16 $\frac{1}{2}$, 1:42, 1:54 $\frac{1}{2}$.
Winner—B. c. by Meddler—Brown Princess.
Went to post at 3:10. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Rockton far outclassed his opponents and was at no time extended. His great advantage lay in not being forced to exert himself in the first part of the race. Decaner's only chance would have been to force the pace and wear the winner down at the end. He requires a strong pace and is best at a mile and a quarter. Kinnikinick was simply not good enough, but will probably improve greatly with the advent of colder weather.
Scratched—(19040) Coburg, 108; 27815 Baron Pepper, 102.

Winner—Br. c. by Lord Hartington—Potina.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 18 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Eddie Busch was best and came through a tight place at the end after much interference in the last half. Honolulu seemed to be winner at the sixteenth post and Shaw was apparently caught napping right at the end. Schwalb was free from soreness, but was carried out on the turn and finished fast. Cassville ran a fine race and is due to win soon. Rockey made up ground in the last half. James P. Keating is a good looker, but was probably overweighted. Montana Pioneer has developed into a quitter. He gave a brilliant display of early speed. Alack has been highly tried, but was very sore in his preliminary.
Scratched—26995 Red Damsel, 99; 27053 The Pride of Surrey, 99; 27566 High Carnival, 97; 27662 Cats Paw, 97; 27838 Nanaimo, 97.

THE FUTURITY.

place. But even with this impost King Hanover is such a strong colt that it is believed the added weight will not make much difference. Goldsmith has been a steady, consistent worker, and yet some turfmen are inclined to believe that he has been asked to do too much of late. As he will have the benefit of a week's rest before going to the post, he is almost sure to be a factor. Nasturtium and Goldsmith will carry 129 pounds, too.

"In addition to being so well represented by his own horses, Mr. Whitney is credited with having a half interest in John E. Madden's candidates, Blue Girl and Yankee. Blue Girl, conceded to be the best two-year-old filly of the year, will be asked to shoulder 131 pounds because of her past triumphs and many persons believe that this burden may prove too much for the game daughter of Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue II. Whether it is or not, the filly is pretty sure to have a big following, especially with Willie Shaw in the saddle. Madden's other color bearer, Yankee, is considered a dark horse of marked ability. He is superbly bred by Hanover—Correction, and in his two races he has shown that he has much undeveloped ability. Madden thinks that Yankee may turn out to be the horse of the race, especially as he will have quite an advantage at the weights. August Belmont's Masterman, it is said, has not yet disclosed his best form. The colt began to develop high class racing qualities at Saratoga, and has been improving so steadily that he will not be overlooked in the betting. Perry Belmont's Numeral, a chestnut colt by Juvenal—Numeroet may prove a surprise. At Sheepshead Bay, where he is being prepared by Jack Joyner, the colt recently worked six furlongs in 1:13 without much overexertion, and for this reason it has been decided to start him. John Daly's Baron, by Goldfinch—Lydia, is another unknown quantity, except as far as private trials go, and the fact that while finishing fourth in a race last Wednesday at the Spa, he made a great rush toward the close after being shut out a greater part of the journey.

"James R. Keene's Telescopes, who by Horoscope-Emma C., is a half brother to Commando, is reported to be fast. Trainer Rowe is said to have made up his mind several weeks ago that the colt's work warranted a start in the Futurity, and if he continued to improve he might provide an upset for the public. Telescopes has not been seen in any of the big races and for that reason the general public cannot procure a correct line on his worth until he has been watched in an actual struggle from flag to wire. Green B. Morris' Conard, winner of the National Stallion Race at Morris Park, has been resting ever since, but it is said of the colt that he has done some great work in the past few weeks and will be worth a bet, even though he must carry top weight, 134 pounds. Capt. S. S. Brown's Hyphen has been in much hard luck all the season. He is a sterling performer and will have a following, as he has always enjoyed one in the past.

"There is much curiosity shown as to the probable performance of Clarence H. Mackay's recently acquired colt, Heno, who was originally the property of J. E. Madden. Heno never has started in a race, but so far as work goes he can be put down as a brilliant gem. In addition to this field, it is possible that we may see Albert Featherstone's crack filly Hataseo, who broke a record at Sheepshead during the spring meeting; F. M. Taylor's Juvenal colt, Utopian; the Pepper Stable's Whiskey King; A. H. & D. H. Morris' Compute and Saturday. There is much regret over the fact that two of the best youngsters, Barney Schreiber's Otis and J. G. Follansbee's Cameron, are not eligible. Both of them can be rated high in the ranks of the best of two-year-olds, of which this season there is an abundance.

"In addition to the Futurity next Saturday the card will be featured by the running of the Inaugural Steeplechase and the Fall Handicap, the latter event being the first of the Autumn handicaps of $6,500, for three-year-olds and upward, at six furlongs, and for which are eligible the following cracks: Brigadier, Bonnhert, The Musketeer, Blues, Imp, Carbuncle, Decanter, Kinnikinnick, Voter, Outlander, Conroy, Ogden, His Eminence, Kamara, Gold Heels, Alcedo, All Gold, King Pepper, Wax Taper, Herbert, Rockton, Sadie S., Isia and Paul Clifford. Altogether Sheepshead ought to reopen in a blaze of glory."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

G. W. B., Cleveland, O. A combination must win on the horses named in it. An entry cuts no figure unless it has been expressly named as a component of the combination.

Virginia Wilcox ran a surprisingly good race, but was 'ring at the end and would have lost second place in another stride. El Fonce faltered in the last eighth, but was coming again when near the wire. Rube showed early speed. It was one of the poorest run races at the meeting.

Winner—Ch. f, by Halma—The Crow.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Throstle led by a safe margin up to the last sixteenth where she began to falter and just had enough left to reach the line first. Hargis finished fast toward the outside, while Santa Teresa finished with a rush in the center of the track. It was a close finish all around. Tommy Foster was right there up to the last hundred yards and bears watching. Pyrrho ran a dull race and can do much better. The others were never contenders.

Winner—B. c, by Hanover—Retrieve.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Hernando was much the best and the result was never in doubt. Strangest ran a good, game race and finished strongly. Brutal was running fast in the last eighth, but could not quite get up for second place. Telamon tired badly when the pinch came. Charley Moore was always outrun.

Winner—B. f, by St. Leonards—Elsae.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. I. Samuelson came strongly in the last eighth on the outside and won on the post. He kept bearing in on Jack Rattilin from the last eighth post until near the line for which he was disqualified. Elsie L. came with a rush on the inside rail in the last sixteenth. Jack Rattilin, off last, made up ground rapidly and seemed to be the winner when a farling out but was tiring badly in the closing strides. Miracle II. finished stontly. Golden Glitter ran well for a half mile and then gave it up. Memnon faded away rapidly in the last eighth.

Overweights—L. Samuelson, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g, by St. Carlo—Santa Cruz.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. St. Cuthbert was easily the best and simply ran away from his field. King Dellis and Admonition had a stiff argument for second place in the last sixteenth, the former outgaming the latter in the closing strides. Admonition is rounding to and will be a hard horse to beat at the next asking. Triaditza could not extend herself to her best form in the slow going. If You Dare ran a dull race and can do better.

Scratched—27792 Hart D., 99; 27835 Maggie Davis, 91; 27723 Onoto, 94; 26780 Delmarch, 92.

Went to post at 4:55. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Odnor showed the most speed for the entire journey and won as his rider pleased. Frangible finished strongly, but had no chance to beat the winner. Tammany Chief had enough after six furlongs had been run. Krewer was so lame when going to the post he could hardly pull his legs after him. He should never have been allowed to start.

Overweights—Zack Phelps, 21 pounds.

Jigger did his best and had no mishaps. Lady Clarik, away very badly, was probably best, but was much hampered and interfered with. She finished strongly. Miss Faustus also ran a good race under trying circumstances. Revella had no mishaps. Flo Eric showed some early speed.

SARATOGA FORM CHART--CONTINUED.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Agnes D. ran a fast and game race and finished strongly. Sam Phillips appears to be in grand condition and should have won. He was waited with too long and although closing fast and strongly was unable to overcome the filly's three-length advantage in the short sprint to the wire. Lady Chorister and Colonel Ballentyne had a fierce struggle between them from start to finish for third honors, with Michaels putting it on his rival in the final strides.

Scratched—27877 Asquith, 116; 27771 Alsike, 113; 27509 Mayor Gilroy, 113; 27877 Armor, 113; 27773 Bonteous, 103.
